

BABSON DISCUSSES UNEMPLOYMENT

(Exclusive NEWS Feature)

I urge readers not to take too seriously the Federal Unemployment figures which are released the second week of each month. Until they are issued on a per-capita basis and properly adjusted, I believe them to be unreliable and misleading.

HOW SUCH FIGURES ARE GUESSED AT

There are 63,000,000 employees (other than farmers) in these United States. Of these, only very few employees are interviewed. There are over 45,000,000 families in the United States. Of these, only 25,000 families are interviewed. Thus, it will be seen that to give out a figure of "3,385,000" is really ludicrous. It surely would be more logical to say about "3,400,000," and call it a "rough estimate."

The figures never show the real situation. When families are interviewed they report not only those who have been laid off, but many who are ill, or working at home, or perhaps too lazy to work. Recently, to help the Republicans get the farm vote, the coverage has been increased from 123 counties to 450 counties. This greatly increases the percentage of farm families included in the count. I forecast such figures will be found very unreliable as regards the status of those helpers who live on the farm, whether or not a salary is being paid them.

Keenan Reveals Threat Of Loss Of Homes In Route 2 Section

Representative Henry E. Keenan of Arlington has indicated to the NEWS that as a result of statements he made at the protest meeting of the Route 3 relocation in Arlington at the Town Hall, Saturday night, he has received many inquiries with relation to the widening of Route 2 in Arlington. Representative Keenan has explained to the people who have inquired that in addition to the proposed relocation of Route 3 wherein there will be a loss of some 67 homes and a million dollars in taxable property that it is also proposed to widen the Concord Turnpike from the Alewife Brook Parkway to beyond the Lexington Line and will necessitate, from rough estimate, an additional loss of approximately 65 homes and additional landtakings in Arlington. Most of these homes taken under the proposed plan will be in the Town of Arlington, especially if Park avenue, Pleasant street and Lake street are redesignated to overpass the Concord Turnpike. This will mean an additional loss of taxable property to the Town.

As Representative Keenan indicates, why should all the proposed improvements, if they are necessary, be wholly in the Town of Arlington and not shared equally or at least partially with adjoining towns?

He states again that he will vote against the proposed bond issue for 1954-57 unless the State Public Work's Commissioner clears up this uncertainty in the minds of the residents of Arlington.

Dog Taxes Due

Payment of 1954 dog taxes is due at the office of the Town Clerk today, it was announced by James J. Golden.

All owners who plan to bring their dogs to the annual rabies clinic must have a dog license, he added.

In 1953 a total of 2,021 dog licenses and one kennel license was issued. Total fees paid amounted to $4528, of which $4,016 was paid to the county and $422.85 remained in Arlington.

While many residents have been paying their dog tax this week, the rush was expected to start today. All who fail to pay will have their names turned over to the dog officer.

SURPRISE HOUSEWARMING
On Friday evening, March 26, Mr. and Mrs. Humbert Beckett were given a surprise housewarming when 40 of their relatives and friends gathered to welcome them to their new home at 74 Wachusett avenue, Arlington.

A gift of a floor lamp and shade was presented by Mrs. Beckett's brother, Mr. Roy Webster, after which refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Roy Webster from a table attractively decorated with spring flowers and candles.

An evening of fun and music was enjoyed which included several special selections and requests ending with group singing of old time songs led by Mr. David Ash-ton.

ROUTE 3 THREAT REMAINS DESPITE MASS PROTESTS

Overflow crowd faces Selectman George Harris as he opens mass meeting on state proposal to construct Route 3 through Arlington. It was estimated that about 2,000 were on hand during the evening.

Arlington May Lose Thousands In Valuation Due To New Bill

Estimating that the town of Arlington stands to lose nearly $300,000 in valuation if the bill is passed, Arlington's Board of Assessors have written to local legislators urging their opposition to House Bill 1775 and Senate Bill 450.

These bills would provide that machinery and equipment used by non-manufacturing corporations would be exempted from local taxation.

At a meeting of the State Assessors' Association held last week it was reported that the total loss of valuation revenue to cities and towns in the state would reach $70,000,000.

In Arlington the loss would result in a tax rate increase of about twenty-five cents per thousand.

Wounded While Cleaning Rifle

Paul F. Doyle, 19, of 69 Oakland avenue, Arlington, was badly wounded Tuesday night when a .22 rifle accidentally discharged while he was cleaning it in his home.

The bullet entered his chest, barely missed his heart, and lodged in his back.

He was taken to Symmes Hospital by Arlington police where he was treated by Dr. Ralph Wells. He was reported in good condition after an emergency operation was performed to remove the slug.

Police said that the rifle is a make-shift, unknown make weapon. Paul, who owns the rifle, was cleaning it in his third floor bedroom when the bolt jammed. In efforts to free the bolt, he accidentally discharged the rifle.

Paul made his way down three flights of stairs to the dining room, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Doyle, and seven brothers and sisters were at the supper table.

Salvitti complained of a bump on the forehead and of being shaken up.

Both cars received considerable damage.

Selectmen Seek Elimination Of M.T.A. Tracks

Members of the Board of Selectmen at their meeting Monday evening voted to request the M.T.A. to install trackless trolleys from Harvard Square to Arlington Heights, in order to improve conditions along Massachusetts ave.

The selectmen will write to Edward Dana, M.T.A. general manager, requesting a conference regarding their demands.

Arlington has suffered from the hazardous conditions caused by the tracks for many years, and the Selectmen feel that it is time that an effort is made to improve the situation. The tracks take up too much room, it was stated, the so-called safety islands are dangerous, and the tracks are slippery when wet.

Elimination of the tracks will enable the improvement of the grade on Massachusetts avenue, and vastly improve the overall traffic situation in Arlington, the Selectmen feel.

A copy of their letter to Mr. Dana will be forwarded to City Manager Curry of Cambridge.

Ticket chairman Wilfred LaVelle urged all members to notify the ticket committee of their desire to attend. Among those serving on the ticket committee are: Daniel Healy, Wilfred LaVelle, Ralph LaVelle, Paul Campbell, Matthew Hunt, Frank Meagher, Leo Fitzpatrick, Charles McNamee, William Casey, Robert Crosby, Francis Coughlin and Nicholas Ryan.

LICENSING OF DOGS

Owners and keepers of dogs, three months old or over, are required under Section 137 of Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as amended, to cause them to be annually registered and licensed before April first in the office of the Town Clerk.

To avoid prosecution by the Dog Officer and the attendant expense connected therewith, every owner and keeper of a licensed dog is, therefore, urged to comply promptly with this requirement of the law.

Volpe Clears Cambridge: Points To Same Location

Despite assurances from State Public Works Commissioner John A. Volpe that the Morningside area of Arlington probably would not be the location of the proposed extension of Route 3, local officials took alarm Wednesday morning from a story in Metropolitan papers in which Mr. Volpe said that any plans to carry the route through Cambridge had been abandoned. His statement that the Lexington - Winchester - Arlington area would be utilized strongly points to the Morningside area as the ultimate choice.

especially by the town for that purpose.

While no definite resume of the report was issued, it was indicated that their recommendation calls for the use of the area near Watertown street in Lexington for the road. This would lead into Route 2, and eventually into Cambridge.

As Mr. Volpe has stated that the route will not go through Cambridge, it is doubtful if this plan will be acceptable.

Meanwhile Arlington officials expressed pleasure with last Saturday evening's protest meeting, and said they would continue to fight any possibility that the route would be constructed in Arlington.

Nearly 2,000 Crowd Town Hall In United Front Against Highway

Some 2,000 determined Arlington residents jammed into Town Hall Saturday evening to unite in a vigorous protest against state plans to construct a major north-east limited access highway through one of Arlington's outstanding residential areas. They heard one after another of the assembled officials — state and local — condemn the plan, and they made it evident in no uncertain terms that they heartily and unitedly opposed the plan.

Despite the reading of a telegram from Public Works Commissioner John A. Volpe which stated that "relocation of Route 3 is not contemplated in the current or the new three year road building program," the words of every speaker met with enthusiastic applause as the entire gathering left no doubt as to their feelings in the matter.

Chairman of the Board of Selectmen George A. Harris opened the meeting shortly after 8:00 o'clock and described the efforts of the Selectmen to date. He spoke of the Blumenthal study, and added that their efforts indicated that it would not be necessary to bring the route through either the Morningside area or the Arlmont Village - Arlmont Ridge section.

Among the state officials who were on hand were Governor's Councillor Edward M. Viola, Senator Robert P. Campbell of Medford, Representatives Henry M. Keenan, Hollis M. Gott, James Doncaster and Joseph McEvoy; Town Moderator Harold E. Magnuson, the selectmen, the town manager, and representatives of various local civic organizations.

Mr. Viola struck a popular chord when he stated that the gathering pointed out that the people of Arlington really "mean business" as indicated by the large turnout.

He went on to say that he was convinced that Mr. Volpe had abandoned the route through Arlington.

Mr. Doncaster said he would vote against the bond issue unless plans were approved by Arlington town officials. His statement was reiterated by Representative McEvoy.

Girl Scout Cookie Sale To Take Place Here During April

"A million and a half little girls, keeping a sober promise to love God and their country and to love other people, can make a big difference in where we go from here." This now famous salute to Girl Scouts from the John Hancock Insurance Company challenges Arlington this week as the annual Cookie Sale begins.

The brisk little saleswomen, who are also practicing madly this week for their international dance program Saturday evening in Robbins Hall, have five varieties of cookies to offer. Many local people whose sweet tooth has been yearning for some of the delectable cookies have inquired as to why other communities have their cookie sale ahead of Arlington. That is because Girl Scouts sell only factory fresh cookies. They are not stock-piled but are made fresh for each community. Local scout officials chose this month so that the girls may make deliveries during their April vacation.

Mrs. Erich E. Schreiter, said today, "This year, more than ever before, a successful cookie sale is vital. Our funds from the Community Chest have been drastically cut. Now we will not only

TOWN HALL Press Conference

Town officials were jubilant over the turnout at the mass meeting Saturday evening. Many persons unable to get a seat left before the meeting started, and others were unable to get into the hall. Only disappointment was the small number of town meeting members who were on hand.

However, Town Clerk Jim Golden points out that attendance at the five sessions of the town meeting was better than in many recent years. Best attendance was on the opening day, when 221 out of 245 members were present. On the following Wednesday, 206 out of 248 were on hand; on Friday, 192 out of 248; Monday, March 22, 204 out of 250; and on the final Wednesday, 189 out of 250.

Predicted tax reduction of $2.99, subject to final approval by the assessors, will prove to be an excellent accomplishment. Fifty cents of the $3.50 predicted by the Town Manager, and also by the finance committee, was absorbed by school construction and planning.

Sidewalk requests for the year have been passed on to the Town Manager. A total of $20,000 has been appropriated, with several projects earmarked. The manager will make the recommendations shortly.

The Board of Selectmen discussed the matter of sewer, water, and street policies in regard to developments in Arlington. Their opinion is that the policies will become firmer in the future, to correspond with trends in nearby communities.

Selectmen have been informed that $1,000,000 is available for Route 2 widening, and that no further land takings are anticipated in the present project. This conflicts with information contained elsewhere in the NEWS.

Field drivers and fence viewers, as well as other minor officials, were named by the Selectmen Monday night. The field drivers include Chief Bullock, Lieut. Thomas F. Sullivan, Lieut. James J. Flynn, and Lieut. Thomas F. Meagher. Fence viewers are James J. Dolan and James J. McCabe. Clifford E. Lansil was named to the Building Board of Appeals for three years, and William F. Larkin an associate member for one year. Miss Anna A. Barnes has been named assistant treasurer for one year.

James C. McCabe, who has been serving as assistant building inspector, has been appointed acting building inspector by the town manager.

"The Governor will have to come up with a new solution" was the comment of Town Manager Monahan when he learned that the Department of Public Utilities had turned down the M.T.A. request for a fare increase. The Manager felt that an increase in the local fare would have a disastrous effect on business conditions locally.

Cubs And Parents See Fire Show

Fire in Miniature, a presentation developed by the Liberty Mutual Fire Insurance Company as a public service in the interest of reducing the loss of life and property caused by fire, was demonstrated by Ernest W. Williams at the Cub Scouts & Parents, Bishop School, Columbia road, Arlington.

Using a miniature village composed of model homes and blazing buildings, Mr. Williams realistically and vividly dramatized how fire starts and spreads. Each incident portrayed was taken from life and represented a true picture of the disasters that can follow on the heels of carelessness and neglect.

Mr. Williams, a former fire department official, said: "Since common, everyday neglect and carelessness cause 90 percent of all fire in the United States today, it is important to know what the causes are and how to effectively reduce or eliminate them." He proceeded to demonstrate, adding: "It is also important to know what to do if fire does strike."

The show was highlighted with entertaining feats of magic which were used to underline important points of fire prevention. "There is no magic or sleight of hand to fire prevention," the demonstrator asserted. "Preventing fires which cause a tragic loss to life and property is everyone's responsibility."

Also at my instigation all so-called "extras" requested by contractors now come before the Council as a specific designated job and opened to the public for its perusal where before this change each "extra" reached the Council by warrant number and the public could not be apprised of the amount or work involved. A further motion to preclude payment of any "extra" until after seven days had expired from the date the Council was requested its approval was unanimously adopted after my initiation. Thus the public is being further protected in the expenditures of the Commonwealth's monies.

Viola further stated that: "For the first time in many years, taxes have been reduced which is of substantial interest to all taxpayers in these days of high costs of living."

"At the same time, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is engaged in its biggest building program, including roads and public buildings. He emphasized that this construction is being accomplished so that the taxpayer is getting more value for his dollar than at any previous time."

Viola also said: "It has been my pleasure and my practice to attend meetings in many cities and towns of the Sixth District and to discuss matters of local concern and the manner in which the Council could be of service in the solution of local problems."

Councillor Viola was an assistant district attorney for Middlesex County for many years and is one of the outstanding trial lawyers in the State.

He has been prominent in Republican circles and one of the most popular and widely known law enforcement officers throughout the State. In the last election, he won strong support from not only Republicans, but Democrats and Independents as well because of his outstanding ability and reputation. In the last election, he received the largest vote ever received by a candidate for Governor or Council for the Sixth District.

He is past president of the Justitia Law Society, and a former president of the First District Eastern Middlesex Bar Association and a member of the Council of the Middlesex Bar Association.

Mass Meeting

(Continued From Page One) charging that statements that the road would not go through were just "honeyed words" to aid the passage of the bond issue, also promised a vote against the $200,000,000 request by the public works department.

William O. Hauser, chairman of the board of assessors, told the gathering that Arlington would lose nearly $1,000,000 worth of total valuation if the plan goes through. This alone would mean a tax rate increase of 80 cents per thousand for Arlington residents. While Governor Herter, Lieutenant Governor Whittier, Mr. Volpe, and state engineers were unable to be present, a telegram also was read from Gov. Herter, in which he stated that the matter had been referred to Mr. Volpe.

Arlington residents had assembled after a spirited, week-long period of advertising, sound truck pleas, and town prepared signs had stirred up tremendous interest. The entire session lasted about an hour and a half, and was marked by complete order from beginning to end.

Women Voters Planning Annual Finance Drive

A preliminary planning meeting for the annual finance campaign of the Arlington League of Women Voters was held last Friday morning in the Robbins Junior Library. Mrs. Francis Chamberlain, finance director of the League who is well-known in Arlington as a successful fund worker for numerous community projects, expressed confidence that the coming campaign will provide sufficient funds to carry out an ambitious program of service to the community next year. Although the League operates on a modest budget, it is necessary to turn to public-spirited citizens for a considerable part of its funds. Membership dues, which are kept at a minimum so that no person might be excluded for financial reasons, do not cover all the League's expenses.

The League of Women Voters has shown steady growth and stimulated increasing citizen participation in both local and wider governmental affairs in its five years of existence in Arlington. The town has drawn very specific benefits from such activities of the League as its Voters' Service, and the public discussion of the Harvard School Survey. Although the League works to stimulate participation in civic affairs, it has always adhered to its primary rule of being completely non-partisan on all issues, as well as in its pre-election work. For this reason donations by all contributors are kept to a moderate amount, so that there can be no intimation of influence on the League's activities from any source.

Miss Janet McEay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. McEay of 8 Moadnock road, a student at Colby Junior College, is planning to spend a few days of her spring vacation with Colby friends in New York City. Miss McEay is enrolled in the Medical Technology program. She will resume her studies at Colby on April 6th.

Loan Displays To Robbins Library

The two displays which are currently being shown in the Robbins Library have been graciously loaned by two Arlington residents. Miss Edith R. Ervin of 252 Gray street has arranged an exhibit in the reference room of her collection of squirrels which are in all shapes and materials ranging from a bowl with a squirrel perched on the rim to tiny squirrel shaped buttons. For a number of years Miss Ervin has had the hobby of collecting items which are decorated with squirrels.

Among the many fascinating objects are some unusual items such as the small white Bennington Parian cream pitcher, which has a raised surface decorated with the squirrel motif; an old-fashioned candle snuffer with a squirrel handle; the rare old alphabet plate, the horse brass trivet featuring the squirrel design; the fine old Staffordshire china pin cushion made in the shape of a pine cone with squirrel decorations; the charming little clay squirrel chatters from Beatrice Potter's famous books for children.

There are many items in the exhibit, made up of books, label pins, buttons, cards, book ends and other objects. Mrs. Greta M. Hanson of 11 Pine Ridge Road has some of her Swedish books on display in the Junior Library. This group of books is composed of both school books and picture books for young children. A few of the titles are "Hansel and Gretel," "Folk Tales From Sweden" and "The boy with golden hair." One of the picture books is illustrated by a squirrel, which is especially attractive. The largest book in the display is "A Day in February" which is beautifully illustrated by Ann Marie Sjoberg.

Miss Muriel Morse of 180 Mount Vernon street, and Miss Kay Somers of 146 Seaboard street recently departed on a Pan American Clipper enroute to sunny Bermuda.

Describes Boston Latin Program To Arlington PTA Council

Mr. George L. McKim, headmaster of the Boston Latin School, was the guest speaker for the Arlington Council of Parent-Teacher Associations on Thursday, March 25th, at the Robbins Junior Library Hall.

Mr. McKim described the curriculum at Boston Latin. His audience was very attentive and asked many questions on points he made.

Boston Latin is the oldest and largest high school in the city and in the state. It accepts only boys planning to go to college who have at least a B average in English, Arithmetic, History and Geography. One out of nine is washed out — but graduates will never meet such stiff competition again.

The school gives both four and six years of high school work, and prefers the latter. The course of study is entirely prescribed, with only one exception. Boys entering a college of technology may drop Latin in their senior year, and take a year of science.

Report cards are issued monthly, and discipline is maintained by a system of demerits. The boys do not like to get demerits as they know that this information becomes part of their permanent record. Prizes, perhaps books, are given as a form of approbation for hard work well done.

Mr. McKim added that the Girls' Latin School is exactly the same as the Boys' except that the girls do not have the demerit system, and receive report cards every two months. The Latin School trains its students for scholarship, leadership, character and service.

In September Mr. McKim will take the post of Professor of Education at Boston College where he will supervise the practice teaching of seniors on the secondary level.

Mrs. Spencer Dormitzer presided at a brief business meeting of the Council when a nominating committee was appointed. Mrs. Harry Fantazian, hospitality chairman, served refreshments at the close of the discussion period.

UNIVERSALIST SERMON

"The New Reformation" was the title of the sermon delivered at the Universalist Church last Sunday by the Pastor, the Rev. George J. W. Pennington. This sermon dealing with the techniques of reformation: renewed scientism, discussion and shared thought, and an explicit faith concerned with practical realities, was the fourth sermon in the Lenten Series, "Religion and Your Life." Words in the candlelit meditation, opening the service, keyed the morning message: "What is truth?" It was asked, and it seemed a difficult question, but it was not, for only that it has long been asked, and the application of its answer makes it appear difficult. Truth is not fact, nor is it necessarily what one believes, but that part of each and every life which leads men and women to function in greater adequacy in respect to social and personal responsibility. Truth is what works well, and one man's truth is not always to next man's truth. For this reason truth can only be found in complete freedom and respect. (At this point the Candle of Truth was lit.) Religions have sought truth. They have found it, and in finding it have met greater needs. They have also lost it again, in lapsing into some new orthodoxy. Truth cannot be taught, but is rather found, erowise, changing, renewing. So must folk who seek truth be, and so must their religion be. (The Candle of Hope was lit.) Participating in the service as Candle-bearers were Janet and Shirley Merchant.

"Democracy in Religion," is the title of the sermon to be preached by the pastor, this Sunday, and is directed at the methods and significance of a religious faith, that not only exists in a democratic state, but is in itself democratic in practice.

HOLD THE LINE

Indications from every source is that the efforts of the town manager, the selectmen, the finance committee, and the town meeting to reduce the annual tax in Arlington will result in a drop of approximately $3.00 per thousand.

Many economies were effected during the eight months that Town Manager Monahan has been in Arlington. Yet some school construction was absorbed, and much planning added, without wiping out the entire $3.50 drop predicted earlier in the year.

School conditions indicate that more costly construction is underway. This will probably be spread out over the next few years, with no major portion allocated against any single year. But there is a point beyond which it is possible to go in cutting expenditures. To anticipate another $3.00 drop next year is to be over optimistic. While Mr. Monahan and the boards which control Arlington will make every effort to cut the rate, and may do so, the major economies already have been effected.

The task ahead is to provide as many capitol improvements as possible without jumping the rate, and to obtain as efficient use of every tax dollar as is possible.

Arlington can feel confident that under its present regime, that will be the aim, and it is very probable that such a record can be attained.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

For the first time in nearly 30 years — and the first time within the memory of a large part of our population — we have seen a cut in a federal tax. Since the late twenties, the government economy has forced increase after increase, on the individual and on business. Now a Republican administration votes a one billion tax cut by reducing or eliminating excise charges on many articles and many services.

The possibilities are endless. With a billion dollars more of purchasing power to toss into the national economy, the people have the choice.

By purchasing more goods, causing manufacture of more units, they can make up a major part of the estimated tax loss. Much of it can filter back into government hands through a greater spurt in national business.

As a result, natural drops in unemployment will take place, and it is highly probable that the murmurs of depression will fade completely.

The other method was to set up vast government inspired projects, increase taxes, and charge each business and each individual for the cost of a retarded economy.

We hope that the new way is the right way. And we hope that when Arlington people determine to take advantage of reduced prices and turnover of goods, they will patronize their Arlington merchants.

Roger Babson's Column

POLITICS CREEP IN BADLY

When I was Director of Information and Education of the Labor Administration, I tried to overcome the political slant. For instance, during the Truman Administration, the Republican families were constantly expecting a business collapse. Hence, they gave the interviewer a pessimistic report pretending business was bad; while Democratic homes gave good reports. Now the conditions are opposite. The Democratic homes are talking grief.

Another feature to be considered is that some states have a greater percentage of itinerant workers. Under present laws in many states, if persons on the labor force are employed for on or over two quarters within a certain twelve month period, then the person is entitled to unemployment insurance of from $20 to $30 per week, even though the person is not a resident of the state and perhaps has even left the state altogether. Your state's reported unemployment should really be adjusted in accordance with this unreasonable and nonconforming legislation. Any reader can get a free copy of what each of the 48 states is rolling up for Federal Unemployment Benefits by writing to the Bureau of Employment Security, Division of Reports, Department of Labor, Washington, D. C. Before leaving your present state, to seek a job somewhere else, you should carefully read this Report by states.

WHAT LATEST FIGURES SHOW

The reported unemployment of the entire United States on February 13, 1954, was 3,385,000 by the Standard Method, 3,671,000 by the new "C. I. O." Method. These both are based on a total population of about 161,350,000, but this population is increasing about 250,000 a month. This means that the unemployed, figured on a labor force of 63,000,000, is, on a per-capita basis, only two per cent of the entire population. This compares with about ten per cent unemployed in 1932. I severely criticize any of the Labor Department or Commerce Department (who are the remains of a Democratic Bureaucracy) for refusing to use the per-capita figures. They are not only ignoring the growth of the country, but may also be changing the method of compiling the figures, to please the C. I. O. crowd. This is like changing the rules of a game in the midst of a game. Furthermore, the increase reported under these new rules is largely based on the reported "unemployed" on a few farms, which is a very debatable figure.

Regarding your own state: Neither of the above figures for present total United States unemployment (the standard figure of 3,385,000, nor the C. I. O. figure of 3,671,000) can be broken down by states. Both are too much of a guess. Moreover, of the present United States population of 161,350,000 about 12 percent are over 60 years of age and 5 percent are over 70 years of age. These figures differ greatly with different states. For this distribution of the age group, the Labor Department makes no adjustment. It thus will be seen that the whole business is guess work and should be corrected or suppressed. However, an unemployment of only 2 percent is nothing to worry about. Such a small percentage should give confidence and optimism for the 1954 Outlook.

TO THE EDITOR

Editor
Arlington NEWS
Arlington, Mass.
Dear Sir:

On Saturday and Sunday, April 3 and 4, members of the Spy Pond Rod and Reel Association will don their hip boots and with pick poles, rakes etc. will attempt to remove from the shore line of Spy Pond many of the old logs, tires, cans and other debris that has so long been reposing below the surface of the water a few feet from shore. This cleanup operation will cover the shore line of the pond from the foot of Pond View Road to the foot of Addison street. The debris that is removed from the pond will be hauled away by town trucks on Monday, April 5.

It is to be hoped that residents of Arlington, especially those whose property borders the pond, will cooperate with our organization in keeping Spy Pond free from debris in the future. Spy Pond is one of the finest bodies of fresh water to be found in the entire Commonwealth and provides many hours of relaxation and enjoyment not only to sportsmen but to hundreds of children who derive much pleasure in feeding the ducks during the summer months.

Parents are urged to impress upon their children that Spy Pond should not be used as a "dumping ground" for old tires, cans and bottles. In years to come many of the youngsters will, I hope, become sportsmen and enjoy fishing. The sport will best be enjoyed if the pond is free from rubbish and debris.

We ask the cooperation of all — young and old. Let us all work to keep Spy Pond clean.

Yours truly,
Thurman F. Chandler,
President, Spy Pond Rod & Reel Association

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the Massachusetts Heart Association, may I express our deep appreciation for the outstanding cooperation which your newspaper gave to our 1954 Heart Fund Campaign. The support which you gave Co-Chairmen Joseph Greeley, George A. Harris, and Franklin W. Hurd, etc. made possible the great success of this year's campaign. Incomplete returns indicate that more than $5,617.05 has been invested in your Heart Association's program of Research, Education and Community Service by the citizens of Arlington, as compared with last year's total of $1,955.90. The present total for the Greater Boston Chapter is $300,000.

Last year your Heart Association was unable to meet all of the requests for research grants which were made by our hospitals and medical schools, and you might be interested to know that the number of requests received so far this year have already doubled those of 1953. Thanks to the generous free-will contributions made by the citizens of your community during this campaign we trust that we will be able to more nearly meet this increased demand.

Each year the outlook toward the conquest of heart disease brightens. The continued public support which you and the citizens of Arlington have given us this year will bring us nearer to the day of victory.

Sincerely yours,

Michael Daly, Local Boy Scout, Identified As Rescuer Of Child

Michael Daly of 15 Amsden street, Arlington, an eleven year Boy Scout was the boy who actually dove into Alewife Brook near the Henderson street bridge on Sunday afternoon, March 28th about four o'clock to rescue young Christopher Tuff, age one and a half, son of Donald Tuff of 77 Henderson street, who had tumbled down the bank and out into deep water at a point where there was no fence or other protection. The rescue was at first attributed to a Woburn boy, who also went in but who, on finding the water more than he could cope with struggled across to the Parkway shore. It was Michael Daly who, passing along the bank on his bicycle, jumped off his wheel, dove in, got hold of young Mister Tuff and pushed him on into the arms of Alfonso Perullo of Framingham, a passing motorist, who had left his car and waded out into the Alewife Brook from the Parkway shore. He then slipped away home to get off his wet clothing and try to get warm. His good deed is vouched for by Ronnie Deveau, twelve, of Cottage avenue, Arlington, and Perullo, it is reported through whose efforts the Tuff youngster was restored to his parents. Scout Daly is the younger brother of Jim Daly who made a similar rescue in pulling a boy out of Spy Pond three years ago.

Complete Adult Education Schedule

The Arlington Adult Education Program, which has been in progress since October, has just completed its 1953-54 schedule.

There was an enrollment of approximately eleven hundred pupils, most of whom were entirely unfamiliar with the craft they aspired to learn. Now after a sixty hour course, and in some cases thirty hours, they have accomplished finished articles which they will exhibit on Monday, April 5, at the Arlington High School from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

In the George Lowe Auditorium will be an exhibition of the work done by the classes in wood finishing, braided rugs, hooked rugs, painted tinware, chair caning, metal craft, slip covers, textile painting, upholstery, drapery, lamp shades, leather craft, cooking and ceramics. Mrs. George Shea and Mrs. Edmund Greiner are in charge of this part of the exhibit.

As in past years, the pupils of the fourteen sewing classes and the millinery class will present a style show in the main auditorium of the school at 8:45 p.m. All the clothes and hats displayed will be those made by the pupils who will also model them. The children's clothes will be modeled by the children for whom they were made. Mrs. Daniel Lorge and Mrs. George Walker are in charge of this part of the exhibit.

Of special interest to the men, will be the display of Auto mechanics, machine shop, radio and television mechanics and blue print reading all in operation. This exhibit will be downstairs and is in charge of Mr. Harry Patterson.

Red Cross Drive In Final Week More Donations Needed To Reach Goal

Should Arlington be deprived of essential Red Cross services?

This question was asked today by Mrs. G. Edward Wilkins, chairman of the Red Cross fund and membership appeal as she noted the community has not yet reached its minimum goal.

Drawing a stark picture of how less effective Red Cross services would affect the people here, the chairman said:

"We cannot take the Red Cross for granted. Like the housewife, the Red Cross needs funds to have a workable budget to do a job that must be done.

"If Red Cross funds are lacking in the blood program, for instance, fewer pints of blood will be collected, processed and sent to the bedside of the sick and ill.

"If you must go through the harried routine of rounding up your own donors as blood is needed within 30 minutes for a desperate operation — how will you do it?

"If a disaster should slap down a house, wrench people out of their homes, throw violent destruction into the lives and futures of our neighbors, should the Red Cross be handicapped from action because it hasn't the funds to do the job right?

"If you have a son or daughter in the Armed Forces and a family emergency arises, should the Red Cross have to turn down your request to get an immediate message to them. Should the Red Cross be kept strong or should it be strangled on a financial noose?

"This is a plea from the heart," the chairman said.

"If by chance a volunteer has not knocked on your door for a fund donation, will you please mail it today to Red Cross, care of your local Postmaster.

"Every dollar donation, every two and five and 10 dollar gift today will mean the difference in what the Red Cross will be able to do tomorrow for the people who need help."

Red Cross volunteers, who comprise the bulk of personnel within the mercy organization, pointed out that all services: disaster relief, free training in health and safety courses, blood program and services to G. I.'s will be hit where it hurts most if funds are not realized within the next few days.

Funds sent to the local postoffice will be credited to the local chapter.

The last minute plea calls on everyone to be thoughtful of the people in trouble — our neighbors — who need the help of the Red Cross.

Last Thursday, in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall, 260 clubwomen from fourteen districts of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, registered at the State Conference of International Relations. The Arlington Woman's Club was the Hostess club.

The meeting opened at 10:30 a.m. with the invocation by Mrs. Eugene Wright, president, Friday Club of Everett. Pledge of Allegiance was led by Mrs. Americo Chaves, State Chairman International Relations.

Mrs. John King Berry, Jr., president of the hostess club, extended a cordial welcome to members and guests and introduced Mrs. Americo Chaves who called particular attention to the Art Corners under direction of Art Chairman, Mrs. William H. Dickson. Hooked rugs and hand-woven articles by club members were on display, as well as numerous pamphlets on Foreign Policy and an assortment of books from the Robbins Library on International Affairs. A demonstration of weaving by club member Mrs. James J. Flynn created much interest.

Mrs. Americo Chaves introduced Mrs. Rodney J. Underwood, Counselor, Department of Human Relations, who spoke on "Working Together," quoting "A good thing to do, is to work with the construction gang and not with the wrecking crew."

Speaking on the Projects and Programs Panel were: Mrs. Frank F. Hill of the Milton Woman's Club, "Clubwomen and the United Nations," Mrs. Willard Weissblatt, Waban Woman's Club, "Presenting America to Students from Abroad," and Mrs. Muriel Javelin, Head Adult Education, Boston Public Library, "Dynamic Study Programs."

Spy Pond Club Joins County League

Thursday evening, March 25 will long be remembered by nine members of the Spy Pond Rod and Reel Association who braved the driving rain and dense fog and drove to Ayer to attend the monthly meeting of the Middlesex County League of Sportsmen's Clubs, held at the Clubhouse of the Ayer Rod and Gun Club on the shore of Sandy Pond.

During the evening, the application of the Spy Pond Rod and Reel Association for membership in the County League was acted upon. Howard Ellegood, a delegate from the Cambridge Rod and Gun Club, stated that he had attended the March 10 meeting of the Spy Pond group as requested by the officers of the County League and that he was favorably impressed by the work they were doing, especially among the youth of the community. He made a motion that the Spy Pond Rod and Reel Association be admitted to the County League. The motion was seconded and carried without dissent.

The speakers of the evening were Joseph W. Brown of Natick, President of the Massachusetts Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs and Ovide Lanois of Marlboro, who recently resigned as a member of the State Fish and Game Board and who has been acclaimed as one of the leading non-professional conservationists of the nation.

Both the speakers urged more practical conservation be undertaken by all sportsmen's clubs, especially among the younger generation. Both urged the delegates to recommend to their clubs membership in the Massachusetts Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs as the best method of obtaining their goals.

Members from the Spy Pond group that attended were Fred Bodemer and Arthur Rainville, who will be the Association's delegates to the County League meetings, Robert A. Noy and John Quinn, who will be alternates to the County League meetings. Also attending as observers were President Thurman F. Chandler, Secretary Winnifred Rainville, Treasurer Catherine Spence, Public Relations Director Erna W. Chandler and Robert Hudson.

Study Club Hears Talks On Cities

Members and friends of the Arlington Heights Study Club met on Tuesday, March 23, at the Dallin Branch Library Hall, to hear two papers in the series on "Cities of the World." The president, Mrs. Elwyn E. Mariner presided over a brief business meeting. Special tribute was paid Mrs. Norval Bacon, who was one of the four remaining charter members of the club. Announcement was made of the presentation of a new set of Compton's encyclopedia to Mrs. Elsie Meserve, principal of the Industrial Arts School, for use in the school library.

Two papers were presented by members of the club, Mrs. Arthur Wells, who has lived in London, gave us a personally conducted tour of that city, describing much of the physical aspects, both new and old. Mrs. Lucinda Spofford presented a study of the city of Helsinki, going into its culture, its historical and education background, and the character of its people.

Mrs. George Lloyd and Mrs. Nils Lungkjen were hostesses at the coffee hour.

Bowman - Martin

St. John's Episcopal Church, Pleasant street, Arlington, was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding on Saturday, February 27th, when Gail Ann Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Martin of Rochester, New York, was united in marriage to Robert Lindell Bowman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Bowman of Arlington.

The bride was attended by Miss Judith Ann Bowman, sister of the groom and the best man was Mr. William Cox of Arlington. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the groom, 193 Spring street, after which the couple left for Charleston, South Carolina where Mr. Bowman is stationed with the U. S. Air Force. Before marriage Miss Martin attended the University of Syracuse and before entering the Air Force, Mr. Bowman was a student at the University of Massachusetts.

Brackett P. T. A.

The March 9th meeting of the Brackett Parent Teacher Association was well attended despite the many reports of illness among the members. It was voted to purchase raincoats and hats for use by the safety patrol.

Continuing the very popular program theme of "getting to know" Arlington's Town Manager, Mr. Monahan explained the position of his office as it concerns the school system. A question period followed during which he won the very apparent appreciation and respect of the membership for his clear and complete answers.

Arlington Plays Part In State High School Drama Festival

Arlington high will play an important part in the State High School Drama Festival to be held at John Hancock Hall on April 3 and 4. Besides being one of nine schools to compete for the state championship, some 25 of our students will help run the festival.

The club will present a condensed version of "State Fair," which was presented here in Arlington as a full production, and other members of the club will serve as hosts and hostesses to participating schools, while still others will be in charge of the information booth. Miss Bernadine Cosman will be in full charge of the information booth. Two of the competing schools will be selected to participate in the New England competition later.

The festival is sponsored by the Massachusetts High School Principals' association and the Boston Globe, and is presented annually by the Massachusetts Secondary School Drama Guild. The performances on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening will be open to the public. Arlington's play will be presented on Saturday evening.

Faculty representatives from Arlington will be Mrs. Helen Matthews and Miss Lena Manning, coaches, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wallace. Some 25 students aside from the cast will assist.
